Olympic medalist wins top corporate award.

Three times World Rowing Champion and Olympic Silver Medalist, Brett Hayman, has won the Corporate Top Performer Award at the Peter Blackshaw Real Estate Awards Night, taking home the title from over 60 other sales agents.

Previously, Brett has been awarded the 2006 Real Estate Institute of the ACT Best Sales Person, has been a finalist in the 2007 Real Estate Institute of Australia Sales Person of the Year and has won the 2005, 2006 and 2007 Best Sales Person for Peter Blackshaw Real Estate Woden.

Brett was an Australian Institute of Sport scholarship holder for eight years and represented Australia eight times as the coxswain for the Australian Rowing Team, including two Olympic Games. During this period Brett won three World Championships and an Olympic Silver medal.

After receiving the award, Brett referred to how his athletic background has set him up for such an award. "...the attributes obtained from rowing such as time management, self discipline and goal setting has set me up for such an award."

The 2008 Beijing Olympic Games are now less than a month away and Brett believes that when the athletes return, they will be in a great position to begin a business life. "The Australian athletes coming home from the Olympics next month will be very successful in their corporate life because of the work ethic and dedication they have used to get to the Olympic Games."

Being awarded the Corporate Top Performer is the most recent in a long list of achievements for Brett in the business and sporting fields and he is confident that there will be many more to come.
