1. Position statement

- 1.1. The use of illicit drugs is harmful to athletes and Rowing Australia seeks to educate athletes to prevent the use of illicit drugs in sport. Further, the use of illicit drugs by athletes can bring the sport into disrepute and sets a poor example for other members of the community who view athletes as role models.
- 1.2. Rowing Australia wishes to prevent the use of Illicit Drugs in Sport through increased education for athletes and members in relation to the potential harms of the use of Illicit Drugs.
- 1.3. This policy is designed to help prevent the uptake of illicit drug use and reduce the drug-related harm to individuals, families and stakeholders of Rowing Australia and the broader community.
- 1.4. Rowing Australia will adopt a management approach which focuses on education and counselling in addressing the use of illicit drugs in the out-of-competition context.
- 1.5. Some illicit drugs may be legitimately used under the supervision of a physician for a clinically justified purpose. The possession and use of illicit drugs is subject to Commonwealth, State and Territory laws.
- 1.6. Rowing Australia has adopted and implemented an Anti-Doping Policy and rules (adopted Jan 2009) which conform to the World Anti-Doping Code. The World Anti-Doping Code Prohibited List includes illicit drugs which are prohibited in-competition. This Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy differs from the Rowing Australia anti-doping policy in that it addresses the out-of-competition use of illicit drugs, concentrating primarily on education, awareness and prevention initiatives.

2. Objectives

- 2.1. Rowing Australia is committed to deterring the use of illicit drugs in sport through:
 - a) tailored education and prevention programs, including the use of positive role models,
 - b) effective education and counselling for athletes identified as using illicit drugs.

3. Application

3.1. This Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy applies to:

- a) Athletes;
- b) Athlete Support Personnel;
- c) Members;
- d) Employees and contractors of Rowing Australia; and
- e) Any other Person who has agreed to be bound by this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.

4. Obligations

4.2. Roles and responsibilities – Athletes must:

- 4.2.1. be knowledgeable of and comply with all rules applicable to them under this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.
- 4.2.2. use their influence on other Athletes' to reinforce the education messages regarding illicit drugs.
- 4.2.3. read and understand the List of Prohibited Illicit Drugs as it relates to them and keep up to date with any changes to the list.
- 4.2.4. act in a discreet and confidential manner in discharging their obligations under this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.

4.3. Roles and responsibilities – Athlete Support Personnel, Employees and Contractors must:¹

- 4.3.1. be knowledgeable of and comply with all rules applicable to them or the Athletes whom they support under this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.
- 4.3.2. read and understand the List of Prohibited Illicit Drugs as it relates to them and keep up to date with any changes to the list.

¹ Note: It is recognised that Athlete Support Personnel in certain professions may be subject to legal obligations with respect to confidentiality and disclosure.

- 4.3.3. use their influence on Athletes to reinforce the education messages regarding illicit drugs.
- 4.3.4. act in a discreet and confidential manner in discharging their obligations under this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.

4.4. Roles and responsibilities – Rowing Australia will:

- 4.4.1. adopt, implement and comply with this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.
- 4.4.2. require as a condition of membership that the policies, rules and programs of Member organisations are in compliance with this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.
- 4.4.3. develop and implement appropriate education and prevention programs and initiatives for the sport.
- 4.4.4. use its best efforts to assist all those to whom this policy applies to fulfil their responsibilities under this Illicit Drugs in Sport Policy.
- 4.4.5. adopt applicable privacy principles and guidelines consistent with DoHA requirements
